

Images of Oklahoma

What do you see?

Where was this photograph taken? Who are these people? What are they doing? How are they dressed? How would you describe the background? When do you think this photograph was taken? What do you think happened before the photograph was taken? For what purpose was this photograph taken?

Photographs are primary sources of information.
They help us understand people and events.

To learn more,
examine clothing,
setting, time, actions,
body language,
facial expressions,
and relationships.

The More You Look The More You See

Visit www.odl.state.ok.us/archives-week to find out more about the photograph, and to see others from the same collection.

Sponsored by the Oklahoma Historical Records Advisory Board, Oklahoma Department of Libraries, Oklahoma Historical Society, Oklahoma State Department of Education, and Oklahoma Museums Association with funding provided by the National Historical Publications and Records Commission.