RG 8-S-18-1 Bill Buxton-General Correspondence

The material in this record series pertains to originals and copies of incoming and outgoing correspondence and publications covering the years 1970-1973. Although many of the documents relate to routine matters of governmental administration such as public appearances and dinners hosted by Governor Hall; requests for door keys, copies of printed reports and state telephone directories; and employment applications, the series contains many letters dealing with local problems, grievances, and concerns. For example, there are several letters dealing with water and air pollution, wildlife, conservation, flood control, feed grain, and bailing wire shortages, water rights, recreational facilities, surface mining, soil erosion, leases of state-owned land, rabies and tick control, and problems of a personal nature. In addition to letters written to and received from private citizens, the series contains correspondences with and from state constitutional officers and regulatory boards and commissions, members of the general assembly and Oklahoma congressmen, governors of other states, and federal agencies such as the U.S. Army Corp. of Engineers, the small business administration, the environmental protection agency, and the law enforcement assistance administration. Most of the correspondence with the General Assembly members deals with proposed legislation, while that with federal officials and congressmen usually relates to Governmental Grants-In-Aid and Water Resources Utilization Projects. Finally, there are letters and other materials dealing Oklahoma's participation in area-wide programs such as improvement of the Arkansas River Basin and the Ozarks Regional Commission. Among others, there are letters to and from the following six individuals: Carl Albert, Reuben Askew, Dale Bumpers, John N. "Happy" Camp, Ed Edmondson, James Hamilton, Fred Harris, James R. Junes, John Jarman, George Nigh, Louie Nunn, and Tom Steed.
